

Virginia L. Scott

Professional Preparation

Michigan State University	Entomology	M.S.	1989
Michigan State University	Entomology	B.S.	1984
College of DuPage (Glen Ellyn, Illinois)	Horticulture	A.A.S.	1982
College of DuPage (Glen Ellyn, Illinois)	Biology	A.S.	1982

Appointments

1993-present Collections Manager, Entomology Section, University of Colorado Museum
 1988-1993 Research Technician, Entomology Department, Michigan State University

Publications

- Scott, V. L., S. T. Kelley, K. Strickler. 2000. Reproductive biology of two Coelioxys cleptoparasites in relation to their Megachile hosts. Annals of the Entomological Society of America 93: 941-948.
- Scott, V. L. 1996. Pollen selection by three species of Hylaeus in Michigan. Special pub. 2, supplement to J. Kansas Entomological Society 69: 195-200.
- Strickler, K. L., V. L. Scott, R. L. Fischer. 1996. Comparative nesting ecology of two sympatric leafcutting bees that differ in body size. J. Kansas Entomological Society 69: 26-44.
- Packer, L., A. Dzinis, K. Strickler, V. Scott. 1995. Genetic differentiation between two host "races" and two species of cleptoparasitic bees and between their two hosts. Biochemical Genetics 33: 97-109.
- Scott, V. L. 1994. Trap selection by three species of Hylaeus in upper Michigan. Great Lakes Entomologist 27: 39-47.
- Scott, V. L. and K. Strickler. 1992. New host records for two species of Anthrax. J. Kansas Entomological Society 65:393-402.
- Scott, V. L. 1993. Use of communal nest entrances by Osmia simillima. Great Lakes Entomologist 26:79-80.

Synergistic Activities

- Provide tours of the Entomology Collection for classes and select Museum visitors.
- Provide information on insects to local nature centers.
- Answer questions about insects from the general public.
- Provide identifications to University personnel and general public.

Graduate Advisors

M.S. -- Roland Fischer